The TranslationCenter

Minnerup - Stanke is based on a practice-oriented authority bundling of the service actually rendered and is with its experienced team constantly trying to endeavor new achievement modules to provide them.

Our special subjects are legal as well as poetic translations within the language combinations of German – English, English- German or US-English respectively.

Customer satisfaction is our first priority. We strive to provide you the highest quality possible as quickly as possible while maintaining a reasonable price.

Of course we advise you with the analysis of your need and compile with you the fact that for you accurate to size cut achievement profile and provides you a non-committal offer.

The translation center delivers your translations via fax, e-mail, postal service, on disk or CD. The deadline can be set and the price for the job quoted, after documents are reviewed in full or in part. For rush-orders(24 hours) an additional 50% will be added to your bill.

Service Translations:

Translations of Websites, corrections, online shops, letters, books, scripts, articles, advertising copies, portfolios for documentations, applications, business documents and letters, certifications and reports, deeds, catalogue translations, correspondences, simultaneous interpreting, trial translations, as well as any kind of legal translations and interpreting.

Your Virtual assistant:

You would like to set up a foreign client base without speaking English?

No problem. Your virtual assistant will take care of your office work , phone calls, customer support, computer work, etc. Knowledge of the internet will be used to take care of your e-mails and send out your circular letters and messages as often as needed.

You now have the opportunity to reach your business out into the global world.

Multimedia based presentations are a burning issue:

For audio and productions, I am able to compose the German part- You can book me as a speaker for commercials, documentations, phone announcements, fair presentations ect.
